

“Port facilities and operations are uniquely situated along the Edmonds shoreline, at the intersection of commercial, recreational and natural environments. Our policies, plans, and staff are committed to all three. It’s a careful balancing act and a necessary achievement.”

Bob McChesney
Executive Director, Port of Edmonds

ADDING VALUE TO OUR COMMUNITY

The Port is focused on promoting Edmonds as a destination and ensuring that the Port is a vibrant place for all to enjoy.

120

Passengers

for whale watching adventures at the Port each day.

3,149

Visiting boats

in our guest moorage each year.

39

Local Businesses

participating in our distinguished Destination Port of Edmonds tourism program.

INVESTING IN OUR LOCAL ECONOMY

The Port of Edmonds is home to numerous jobs and businesses. Through diligent operations management, the Port greatly contributes to the economic vitality of the Edmonds area.

71

Businesses

operating on Port property.

819

Employees

working on Port property.

72

Local vendors

providing regular service to our marina customers.

25,091

Pounds of waste

saved from entering Puget Sound in 2016 through our waste disposal and recycling programs.

Clean Boating foundation

Certified clean

boatyard and certified clean marina awarded by Northwest Marine Trade Association.

